because of the mouse!!

SPECIAL APPEALS FOR THIS WEEK

13th November

The crates will remain available at the back of Church until Friday for donations of items. Alternatively, please bring down any last items in the early afternoon of Friday when we will be setting up.

Tombola. Bottles, Bottles, Bottles urgently needed – all sorts welcome - wines, spirits, squash, tomato sauce, vinegar, olive oil, water, etc! This has been a very successful stall in past years, so stock is key! The tombola will also offer nice chocolates.

BOOKS: Books in good condition gratefully received

TOYS - GAMES - PUZZLES are needed for our 'good quality' toy stall.
Please check they are all complete before donating!

CRAFTS - please speak to Cathy

CHRISTMAS GIFTS AND TREATS: Good quality items suitable as Christmas gifts for all the family will be welcome for this stall. Also nice chocolates/sweets much appreciated at set-up or given directly to Rosie Shaw (to avoid nibblings of the mouse!) Toiletries- Always a good seller, but please ensure toiletries are within date

CAKES: Please sign up with Janet Packe

Produce Stall: The Produce Stall needs jam, marmalade and chutney. Please put any donations in the basket in church. Many thanks.

Raffle: Any high quality prizes gratefully received. Please contact Cathy.

Jewellery: We are completely restocking this year to ensure a fresh and exciting stall. Please look through your collection and consider donating unworn pieces to the stall. For more valuable items you would rather not leave in the crates, please give them to Catherine Holness, or to Cathy Shaw who will pass them on.
